Incisal Edge, the leading lifestyle magazine for dental professionals, celebrates America's best, most innovative and interesting practitioners. Honorees are nominated by industry experts from around the country and selected by an independent panel. New for 2019, Incisal Edge is recognizing general dentists and specialists under individual categories to better acknowledge their singular accomplishments.

We're proud to introduce this year's leaders in cosmetic dentistry, endodontics, implantology, periodontics, oral surgery and more. They're the very best of today, forging an exciting future by pushing the boundaries of cutting-edge patient care.
